3RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

He walked along a little farther and saw James, the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They too were in a boat mending their nets. Then he called them. So they left their father Zebedee in the boat along with the hired men and followed him. - Mk 1:19-20

3^{ER} DOMINGO DEL TIEMPO ORDINARIO

Un poco más adelante, vio a Santiago y a Juan, hijos de Zebedeo, que estaban en una barca, remendando sus redes. Los llamó, y ellos, dejando en la barca a su padre con los trabajadores, se fueron con Jesús. - Mc 1, 19-20

From the Pastor's Desk

"Come after me and I will make you fishers of men." (Mark 1:17)

Too often we limit our concern for our faith lives to ourselves. Our priority for Christ can become about the salvation he offers to us personally.

We can become so concerned about building up our own connection with Christ that we neglect to share our faith and our truth about God's life and glory with others.

In doing so, we might undertake different activities – good and holy activities, such as worship, prayer, or biblical and spiritual reading and study that are meant to deepen our relationship with Christ. We might care for those around us and help those in need.

All these activities are essential and important to our faith lives and to our good relationship with Christ.

At the same time, we can overlook the importance of guiding and supporting others to Christ's life and salvation by sharing our faith and our love of Christ with them.

The quote from this Sunday's gospel confirms the significance of missionary outreach as part of our relationship with Christ. Jesus' plan, as he implies in his statement, is to train these men to gather people to his Father's life.

Christ's mission, through his life, teaching, death, and resurrection is to open the way for all people, especially the lost and marginalized, to discover a share in his Father's glory. And he wants us all to join him in his mission.

While the first step in our faith journey is to encounter Jesus Christ and come to know him, our final step is to be Christ to others and gather them to salvation in his Father's life and glory.

Our goal, with the apostles, is to become missionary disciples.

Fr. Brian Kean

Desde el escritorio del pastor

"Venid en pos de mí y os haré pescadores de hombres". (Marcos 1:17)

Con demasiada frecuencia limitamos a nosotros mismos el interés por nuestra vida de fe. Nuestra prioridad para Cristo puede ser la salvación que él nos ofrece personalmente.

Podemos preocuparnos tanto por fortalecer nuestra propia conexión con Cristo que descuidamos compartir nuestra fe y verdad acerca de la vida y la gloria de Dios con los demás.

Al hacerlo, podríamos participar en diferentes actividades: actividades buenas y santas, como la adoración, la oración o la Biblia y lecturas y estudios espirituales que tienen como objetivo profundizar nuestra relación con Cristo. Podríamos preocuparnos por quienes nos rodean y ayudar a quienes lo necesitan.

Todas estas actividades son esenciales e importantes para nuestra vida de fe y para nuestra buena relación con Cristo.

Al mismo tiempo, podemos pasar por alto la importancia de guiar y apoyar a otros hacia la vida y la salvación de Cristo al compartir nuestra fe y amor por Cristo con ellos.

La cita del evangelio de este domingo confirma la importancia del alcance misionero como parte de nuestra relación con Cristo. El plan de Jesús, como lo implica su declaración, es permitir que estos hombres reúnan a la gente a la vida de su Padre.

La misión de Cristo, a través de su vida, enseñanza, muerte y resurrección, es abrir el camino para que todas las personas, especialmente los perdidos y marginados, descubran una participación en la gloria de su Padre. Y quiere que todos nos unamos a él en su misión.

Si bien el primer paso en nuestro camino de fe es encontrar a Jesucristo y llegar a conocerlo, nuestro paso final es ser Cristo para los demás y reunirlos para la salvación en la vida y gloria de Su Padre.

Nuestro objetivo, con los apóstoles, es convertirnos en discípulos misioneros.

Padre Brian Kean
