Liturgy of the Word

First Reading

Jeremiah 31:7-9 / 149

Thus says the Lord:
 Shout with joy for Jacob,
 exult at the head of the nations;
 proclaim your praise and say:
 The Lord has delivered his people,
 the remnant of Israel.
 Behold, I will bring them back
 from the land of the north;
 I will gather them from the ends of the world,
 with the blind and the lame in their
 midst,

the mothers and those with child;
 they shall return as an immense
 throng.
 They departed in tears,
 but I will console them and guide
 them;
 I will lead them to brooks of water,
 on a level road, so that none shall
 stumble.
 For I am a father to Israel,
 Ephraim is my first-born.

Responsorial Psalm

Psalm 126

God has done great things for us, filled us with laugh-ter and mu - sic; God has done great things for us, filled us with laugh-ter and mu - sic.

1. When our God led us back to freedom,
 like dreamers we beheld the promised land again;
 our mouths were filled with laughter and rejoicing.
2. We proclaimed to the nations what you had done for us;
 your mighty deeds of love, restoring us to life,
 you lead your people home to you rejoicing.
3. Come restore our fortune, renew us in your love,
 as rivers through the sand, as springs within the desert;
 those who sow in tears shall reap rejoicing.

Second Reading

Hebrews 5:1-6

Brothers and Sisters: Every high priest is taken from among men and made their representative before God, to offer gifts and sacrifices for sins. He is able to deal patiently with the ignorant and erring, for he himself is beset by weakness and so, for this reason, must make sin offerings for himself as well as for the people. No one takes this honor upon himself but only when called by God, just as Aaron was. In the same way, it was not Christ who glorified himself in becoming high priest, but rather the one who said to him:

You are my son:

this day I have begotten you;

just as he says in another place:

You are a priest forever

according to the order of Melchizedek.

Gospel

Mark 10:46-52

As Jesus was leaving Jericho with his disciples and a sizable crowd, Bartimaeus, a blind man, the son of Timaeus, sat by the roadside begging. On hearing that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out and say, "Jesus, son of David, have pity on me." And many rebuked him, telling him to be silent. But he kept calling out all the more, "Son of David, have pity on me." Jesus stopped and said, "Call him." So they called the blind man, saying to him, "Take courage; get up, Jesus is calling you." He threw aside his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus. Jesus said to him in reply, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man replied to him, "Master, I want to see." Jesus told him, "Go your way; your faith has saved you." Immediately he received his sight and followed him on the way.
