From the Pastor's Desk

"Live as children of light." (Eph 5:8b)

Our second reading this Sunday includes this year's parish theme for Lent: "Live as children of light."

As part of our Lenten preparation, there will be two parish Lenten Missions at 7pm on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday of March 27, 28, and 29, respectively. There will be one mission in English and one in Spanish.

Except for Tuesday, each mission, one at St. Louise de Marillac church (in English) and one at our St. Barbara Parish Center and church (in Spanish) begins at 7pm and will last about an hour.

On Tuesday, March 28, the parish will hold a Taizé Service with Adoration at St. Louise de Marillac church for attendees of both the English and Spanish missions. During the service, guests will have the opportunity to have private confession, with an English-speaking or Spanish-speaking priest.

This mission is an opportunity to deepen our faith through spiritual presentations, reflection, and Mass (on Wednesday). Importantly, parishioners will have the opportunity to fulfill their obligation to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation at least once a year.

Please come out and join us!

-Fr. Brian Kean

Desde el escritorio del pastor

"Vivan como hijos de luz." (Efesios 5:8b)

Nuestra segunda lectura de este domingo incluye el tema parroquial de Cuaresma de este año: "Vivir como hijos de la luz".

Como parte de nuestra preparación para la Cuaresma, habrá dos Misiones Cuaresmales parroquiales a las 7 p. m. los lunes, martes y miércoles del 27, 28 y 29 de marzo, respectivamente. Habrá una misión en inglés y otra en español.

Excepto el martes, cada misión, una en la iglesia St. Louise de Marillac (en inglés) y otra en nuestro Centro e iglesia St. Barbara Parish (en español) comienza a las 7 p. m. y durará aproximadamente una hora.

El martes 28 de marzo, la parroquia llevará a cabo un Servicio Taizé con Adoración en la iglesia St. Louise de Marillac para los asistentes de las misiones inglesa y española. Durante el servicio, los invitados tendrán la oportunidad de tener una confesión privada, con un sacerdote de habla inglesa o española.

Esta misión es una oportunidad para profundizar nuestra fe a través de presentaciones espirituales, reflexión y Misa (los miércoles). Es importante destacar que los feligreses tendrán la oportunidad de cumplir con su obligación de recibir el Sacramento de la Reconciliación al menos una vez al año.

¡Por favor sal y únete a nosotros!

Walking as Children of Light

Monday, March 27

7pm to 8pm

St. Louise de Marillac Church (English)

Presented by Fr. Brian Carpenter, S.T.D.

Walking as a Child of the Light involves living in the Kingdom of God, not just in the future, but in the present as well. Yet often times the world around us is marked by rivalries, division and violence. Join us for a conversation with Fr. Brian Carpenter as he uses the insights of René Girard's mimetic theory to lead us to new insights about the Eucharist. This parish mission will help us to reject the ways of the world and truly walk as children of the Light who live in the Kingdom of God.

Fr. Brian Carpenter, S.T.D. is an Adjunct Professor of Theology at Holy Cross College in Notre Dame, Ind. and the Parochial Vicar at St. Matthew Cathedral in South Bend, Ind. He specializes in applying the insights of René Girard's mimetic theory to the sacramental life of the Church, and has presented his research at academic conferences, seminary courses and parish missions.

Caminar como Hijo de la Luz implica vivir en el Reino de Dios, no sólo en el futuro, sino también en el presente. Únase a nosotros para conversar con el diácono Montalvo. El nos hablará sobre nuevas ideas sobre la Eucaristía. Esta misión parroquial nos ayudará a rechazar los caminos del mundo y caminar verdaderamente como hijos de la Luz que vivimos en el Reino de Dios.

El diácono Montalvo es diácono en Nuestra Señora de la Caridad en la Arquidiócesis de Chicago. Fue reconocido por la arquidiócesis como el Diácono del Año 2022 y recibió el Premio de San Esteban.
