From the Pastor's Desk

This week we begin a new liturgical year. During the upcoming year, we will be following the readings of Cycle C, which are characterized by the Gospel of Luke.

We begin our year with the season of Advent, a time of hopeful anticipation.

"Maranatha" is an expression from the early Church (found in 1 Cor 16:22 and the Didache, an early Church document) that encapsulates Advent.

It is a transliteration into Greek of an Aramaic phrase. It comes from the Aramaic word mar, "lord," and a form of the verb 'ata, "to come."

The meaning depends on the division of the word: maran atha, "Our Lord/Master has come," or marana tha, "Our Master, come!" Our translation usually follows the later more closely as, "Come, Lord Jesus!".

This dual possibility of this expression of Jesus already having come and our hope in his future coming suggests the dual nature of Advent. It is a season of celebration for the coming of our Lord, at Christmas, as well as a time for anticipating his coming at the end of time.

As part of Advent, the parish offers a Renew program that brings groups together to deepen their faith, by discussing the week's Sunday readings. These one hour gatherings over four weeks are a convenient way to reflect on Jesus' ministry and its application to our lives. Go to our parish website to sign up for a group (www.HGAParish.org).

Thank you to our many parishioners who donated food at our Thanksgiving Mass!

Thank you to Michael Miller for organizing the loading and delivery of the food and to the many parishioners at Mass who assisted him!

Maranatha! May we prepare well this Advent season for our Christmas celebrations.

-Fr. Brian Kean

Del escritorio del párroco

Esta semana comenzamos un nuevo año litúrgico. Durante el próximo año, seguiremos las lecturas del Ciclo C, que se caracterizan por el Evangelio de Lucas.

Comenzamos nuestro año con la temporada de Adviento, un tiempo de anticipación esperanzada.

"Maranatha" es una expresión de la Iglesia primitiva (se encuentra en 1 Cor 16,22 y en la Didaché, un documento de la Iglesia primitiva) que resume el Adviento.

Es una transliteración al griego de una frase aramea. Procede de la palabra aramea mar, "eño", y de una forma del verbo 'ata, "veni".

El significado depende de la división de la palabra: maran atha, "Nuestro Señor/Maestro ha venido", o marana tha, "¡Nuestro Maestro, ven!". Nuestra traducción suele ajustarse más a esta última: "¡Ven, Señor Jesús!".

La doble posibilidad de esta expresión de que Jesús ya ha venido y nuestra esperanza en su futura venida sugiere la doble naturaleza del Adviento. Es un tiempo de celebración de la venida de Nuestro Señor, en Navidad, así como un tiempo de anticipación de su venida al final de los tiempos.

Como parte del Adviento, la parroquia ofrece un programa de Renovación que reúne a grupos para profundizar en su fe, debatiendo las lecturas dominicales de la semana. Estas reuniones de una hora durante cuatro semanas son una manera conveniente de reflexionar sobre el ministerio de Jesús y su aplicación a nuestras vidas. Visite la página web de nuestra parroquia para inscribirse en un grupo (www.HGAParish.org).

Gracias a los muchos feligreses que donaron alimentos en nuestra Misa de Acción de Gracias.

¡Gracias a Michael Miller por organizar la carga y entrega de los alimentos y a los muchos feligreses en la Misa que le ayudaron!

¡Maranatha! Que nos preparemos bien en este tiempo de Adviento para nuestras celebraciones de Navidad.

-P. Brian Kean
